

MPHIL ECONOMICS (TINBERGEN INSTITUTE)

Tinbergen Institute (TI) is the graduate school and institute for economic research of the economics departments of Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam (EUR), University of Amsterdam (UvA) and VU University Amsterdam (VU). It was founded in 1987 by these three economics departments and is located in both Amsterdam and Rotterdam. TI currently has an annual influx of around 30 MPhil students, who receive training and supervision from the Institute's senior research fellows.

Information and application

Please visit www.tinbergen.nl for the most recent information on the application deadlines, application requirements, graduate school programme, scholarships, etc. For more specific questions please contact the graduate school coordinator via info@tinbergen.nl.